ANNE EBERHARDT JOINS GAVIN/SOLMONESE AS SENIOR DIRECTOR IN VALUATION AND LITIGATION CONSULTING PRACTICE

Wilmington, Del. (March 17, 2015)—Gavin/Solmonese LLC announced today that Anne Eberhardt has joined the firm as a Senior Director in its Valuation and Litigation Consulting practice. Based in New York City, Anne will be instrumental in furthering the firm's expert witness practice and building the firm's forensic investigation capabilities.

As a forensic accountant for more than 15 years, Anne is experienced in conducting forensic audits, building and testing financial models, resolving economic disputes, and leading teams in large-scale investigations. Her expertise also includes testing compliance, liquidating assets, and strengthening anti-corruption capacity in some of the world's most difficult environments.

"Anne's tremendous skills in complex forensic and compliance investigations for clients ranging from global non-governmental organizations to the world's leading global investment groups, will add a dynamic element to our valuation and litigation practices in New York, as well as in Washington, DC," said Ted Gavin, Managing Director and Founding Partner of Gavin/Solmonese. "Her international experience will increase our firm's reputation as a strong, trusted and experienced resource in international disputes, as more companies increasingly do business and invest globally."

Prior to joining Gavin/Solmonese, Anne worked in the Forensics and Investigation Practice at Grant Thornton, LLP. She is a member of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners and the Association of Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialists.

Anne earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Finance and a Masters Degree in Business Administration, with an emphasis in quantitative methods and accounting, from Brigham Young University's Marriott School of Management.
