Stan Mastil, a Managing Director with Gavin/Solmonese LLC, is a nationally recognized turnaround professional with 25+ years of experience working with distressed companies and their stakeholders. Stan has served as a Chief Restructuring Officer in Bankruptcy and Out-of-Court Matters. He has a significant background in advising parties in bankruptcy matters with respect to Chapter 11 reorganizations (pre- and post-filing) and Chapter 7 and 11 liquidations. He has served as an Advisor to numerous unsecured creditors' and equity committees, as a liquidating trustee, and as an advisor to liquidating and indenture trustees and court-appointed examiners. He has a broad range of experience including, the food and beverage, entertainment, retail, gaming, manufacturing, mining, construction, and banking industries. Stan has testified numerous times in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, New Jersey, Maryland, and Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Stan served as financial advisor to the Debtor or Chief Restructuring Officer in numerous matters, most recently Shoe City, 8BIOMED Punch Bowl Social, Consolidated Infrastructure Groups, Touch of Italy Restaurants, and Adams Resources Exploration Corporation. He also served as a financial advisor to numerous unsecured creditors' committees, including Revel AC, Inc., Oreck Corporation, Midway Gold, Inc., Videology, Inc., and Boomerang Systems, Inc. In the high-profile Chapter 11 bankruptcies of Energy Future Holdings and Exide Technologies, Stan served as financial advisor to indenture trustees.

Specializing in litigation matters requiring forensic accounting investigation, he has extensive experience working on cases involving criminal fraud, money laundering, bank and wire fraud, class action suits, and the reconstruction of financial records. He is Certified in Financial Forensics by the AICPA.

In 2013, he was a member of the engagement team awarded the TMA Transaction of the Year Award, Small Company and in 2016, the Turnaround Atlas Award for Corporate Turnaround of the Year – Large Company.

Prior to joining Gavin/Solmonese, Stan held senior leadership positions with two public accounting firms in the greater Philadelphia area – Fesnak & Associates LLP, and Miller Coffey Tate, LLP. He is a Certified Public Accountant in Pennsylvania.
